ABOUT ME

I have work experience providing services to private clients abroad as a self-employed worker. During and after my vocational training, I also completed an internship as a real estate broker, where I gained basic experience in client consultation, communication and sales.

I am communicative, responsible and quick to build relationships with people. I am focused on providing high-quality customer service and achieving results. I enjoy a dynamic working environment, learn quickly and am able to maintain positive communication even in challenging situations.
