COVER LETTER

Subject: Application for Forklift Operator / Warehouse Operator Position

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for a Forklift Operator or Warehouse Operator position with your company. I am a Bangladeshi applicant with one year of work experience and a valid forklift operator training certificate. I am interested in contributing to a professional warehouse, logistics, distribution or industrial team.

My experience includes forklift-related goods handling, moving materials, and supporting loading and unloading work. I also have practical experience with packing and sorting. I understand the importance of careful handling, following instructions and maintaining a safe working environment.

I am dependable, hardworking and willing to learn your company's procedures and equipment requirements. I am currently based in Bangladesh and would require the appropriate legal work authorisation for employment in your country. I am prepared to provide my passport and forklift training certificate, along with any other documents required during recruitment.

Thank you for considering my application. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and training could support your operations.

Yours sincerely,

Shafiqul Mullah
